

Nigel Heptinstall - Outdoors Again

Hi,

<https://outdoors2015.wordpress.com/>

My grateful thanks to all of you have contacted me regarding my 'sacking' from the local papers, (120+). A number of you even went so far as to write to the Editor and even cancelled your subs, whilst some local Societies published the news in their newsletters. Thanks to all of you for the wonderful support you have shown. The response has been very humbling and I feel I still have a role to play in promoting and championing wildlife and wildlife issues and have therefore, somewhat reluctantly taken to social media.

Stan Beer at <http://www.HowStean.co.uk> has asked me to write a monthly blog for him, please give it and his website a visit.

Social media is a 'whole new ball game' as far as I am concerned so any help or advice, in fact any feedback, would be very gratefully received.

Twitter. I think you need to list me as a friend or something, that way when I tweet you should receive it. (@outdoors2015)

Website <https://outdoors2015.wordpress.com/>

Facebook Page outdoors2015

Please send me your sightings and views

If you want to link your web page to mine then please tell me and I will also try to retweet (is that the right phrase?) any messages you send.

I have decided that I can continue to help wildlife by speaking at your meetings and hopefully make some small amount of cash for pumping back into the website. Currently free but I suspect that won't last long.

Please forward this email to as many folk as you think might be interested, but remember this is very much a work in progress at the moment.

If you don't wish to receive future emails about my blog, let me know and I will delete you from my mailing list.

Best Wishes
